BUILDING RENOVATION BEGINS

The library will be undergoing some light construction work beginning in the New Year as we transition to a new HVAC system. The process of getting this new system will last 90-120 days. The library will remain open, though please be aware that there will be limited space and an increase in noise as work is being done.

We may also need to close for a few days and/or open late during this time. Due to these conditions, all programs will be on hiatus until April 2020. Please call ahead before coming to the library to ensure that we are open. We will do our best to update our Facebook and Website as soon as we become aware of any changes in our hours. Thank you for your patience during this time!

NEW MAGNIFYING EQUIPMENT

The library is pleased to announce that we have received an Aladdin Ultra reading machine. This device allows our patrons to magnify documents to a much more comfortable reading size.

Feel free to bring in a document with fine print and see the difference that larger print can make!
